MISSION / MANDATE

The Capital Region Board was established in 2008, under Capital Region Board Regulation 38/2012 under the Municipal Government Act.

The regulation gives the CRB a mandate to do three things: Prepare a regional growth plan; Facilitate its implementation (REF); and Implement policies for cost-sharing of regional projects (currently articulated in the 2010 Growing Forward beginning on p 155).

The Board has been granted the authority under Ministerial Order L:270/10 to approve Municipal Statutory plans and ensure the compliance with the Growth Plan, in accordance with the Regional Evaluation Framework (REF).
